

Climbing The Ladder

Objective: Moving beyond isolated sound production is an important skill for young children to develop. This coordination task focuses on transitions in the front of the mouth.

Instructions: Help the child climb to the top of the ladder by saying each sound correctly. Younger children and pre-readers will need to repeat the sound after you. Start at the bottom of the shortest ladder and move to the next ladder.

